CURRENT PROJECTS

Global Privately and Government-owned Worldwide Surveillance System (GPAWSS)
Chief scientist and co-project manager for GPAWSS. GPAWSS is a surveillance platform designed to provide surveillance data to inform commanders and VCOs of the distribution, frequency, and incidence of various companion animal diseases. The platform uses multiple heterogeneous data streams including: Remote Online Veternary Record (ROVR) EHR data, laboratory data, and data from a civilian corporate companion animal practice.

Modernizing the Data infrastructure of the Veterinary Services and Public Health Sanitation Directorate (VSPHS)
The VSPHS is currently at a crossroads in terms of the organization of data in a manner that allows for increased collaboration with outside organizations and encourages creativity and the discovery of novel data sources and research methods. i) The project intends to: Establish a data etiquette protocol within the VSPHS in order to establish a data standardization protocol, simplifying future data integration with outside organizations ii) Restructure the data storage structure of the directorate, establishing standardized databases, per division and housing them within the Army Engineer Research and Development Center (AERDC) DoD Supercomputing Resource Center's data infrastructure (DSRC).
